Congratulations, Joshua! Your FAFSA was successfully submitted to Federal Student Aid.

Does your brother or sister need to complete a FAFSA? If so, you can transfer your parents' information into a new FAFSA for your brother or sister to save time. Your parents will have to provide a signature again, but that's all.

What Happens Next

- In 3-5 business days, you will receive an e-mail notifying you that your FAFSA was processed.
- Your FAFSA information will be made available to your school(s), and they will use it to determine the aid you may be eligible to receive.
- Your school(s) will contact you if they need more information or when they are ready to discuss your financial aid award.
- If you have questions about your financial aid package, contact your school(s).

Eligibility Information

Based on the eligibility criteria, you may be eligible for the following:

Estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) =
000430

The EFC is a measure of how much you can contribute to the cost of your education. Schools use your EFC to determine your federal student aid eligibility.

The EFC is not how much aid you will receive or how much you have to pay for college.

Pell Grant Estimate - $5,325.00

Direct Stafford Loan Estimate - $5,500.00

You may also be eligible to receive other federal, state, or institutional grants, scholarships, and/or work-study.

In addition, you should learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Your parent(s) indicated that they were going to file their taxes and were providing estimated 2015 tax information. Once your parent(s) have filed their tax return, you must update the information you reported on the FAFSA to reflect the actual information from the 2015 tax return your parents filed. If your parents filed a federal tax return with the IRS, when you access your FAFSA online, your parents may be eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, which is the best and easiest way to provide accurate tax information. With just a few simple steps, your parents can view information from their IRS tax return and transfer that information directly into your FAFSA.
